

Rattlesnake Trail

Located in the vicinity of Rattlesnake Road off Highway 174 in Grass Valley, the Rattlesnake Trail provides a lovely walk along canals and through forest glades. Think of the trail route as a lollipop: a long leg paralleling Rattlesnake Road, and a loop in the Rattlesnake Ridge subdivision, giving you the opportunity to choose which section to do.

Getting there:

From downtown Grass Valley, head toward Colfax on Highway 174.

Northern trailhead: The trail begins at the intersection of Highway 174 and Rattlesnake Road. Park along Rattlesnake Road.

Southern trailheads: The trail begins at the intersection of Rattlesnake Road and Rattlesnake Ridge Drive. The trail crosses Rattlesnake Road and splits, going along both Rattlesnake Road and Rattlesnake Ridge Drive.

Distance: 2.3 mile one way.

Elevation Change: About 200 feet.

Uses: Foot and bike only. Dogs on leash. No motorized vehicles.

Bear Yuba
LAND TRUST