

Yewei'im Bom Trail

This one-mile exterior loop trail at BYLT's Burton Homestead was completed in the spring of 2016. It traverses a variety of landscapes such as meadow, chaparral, mixed conifer forest and wetland habitat. The Burton Homestead is also home to Sierra Harvest's, Food Love Project organic garden, 4 Elements Earth Education who runs the Fox Walker program, and Pata Panaka the Tsi- Akim Maidu Cultural Center.

Getting there:

Distance: 1 mile loop trail.

Elevation Change: 120 feet.

Uses: Non-motorized use, foot only. No bikes or equestrian use. No camping. No smoking. Dogs on leash.
